

Surprise

Describe a time you didn't at first recognize a person you actually knew.

Read Luke 24:13-34.

1. What might the two have talked about before Jesus joined them?
  - A. How was it possible that Jesus died?
  - B. Whether or not Jesus really was the Messiah.
  - C. Trusting the women's report that Jesus had been resurrected.
  - D. What will happen next since Jesus died?
  - E. Will Christ's disciples get crucified next?
  - F. Where should we stop for lunch?
  - G. Let's move out of this area.
  - H. Jesus did prophesy earlier about His death and resurrection.
  - I. Other.

2. Why did God keep these two from recognizing Jesus?
  - A. They would have freaked out.
  - B. A leisurely walk helped Jesus stretch His legs after His resurrection.
  - C. Jesus wanted to help them see Him in the Old Testament.
  - D. From this point forward, Jesus would frequently show up incognito.
  - E. Christ's death devastated these two, so Jesus had to do this slowly.
  - F. Jesus loved to give Bible studies.
  - G. Jesus just wanted a quiet way to escape from Jerusalem.
  - H. Jesus desired to reveal Himself to the remaining 11 disciples first.
  - I. Other.

3. Right now it seems Jesus doesn't know what's happening with:
  - A. The state of our world (or nation).
  - B. My personal situation.
  - C. My friend(s)—or lack of friends.
  - D. My family.
  - E. My church.
  - F. The pandemic.
  - G. Climate change.
  - H. The Second Coming.
  - I. Other.

