PREPARING TO TEACH

I. SYNOPSIS

God has a purpose for everything. Even our problems serve to benefit us if we confront them with the right attitude and adequate preparation. God could have saved Peter and John from flogging, kept Paul and Silas out of jail, and prevented Daniel from being thrown into the lions' den. Yet, He didn't. And as a result, every one of them deepened their relationship with God.

This lesson aims to help young people recognize that God not only empowers them to overcome tribulation, but has planted seeds of potential in them that if attended to appropriately can develop into purposeful skills and talents to be used for His glory.

Ellen White reiterates this in her writings:

"What was the strength of those who in the past have suffered persecution for Christ's sake? It was union with God, union with the Holy Spirit, union with Christ" (The Acts of the Apostles, p. 85).

"The appointment of the seven to take the oversight of special lines of work, proved a great blessing to the church" (The Acts of the Apostles, p. 89).

Our students can make a difference today—in our churches and in their worlds. They are gifted, they are empowered, and God wants to use them. In this lesson they'll be encouraged to be open to how God wants to use them today.

II. TARGET

The students will:

- Understand that not only their strengths serve

a purpose, but even their problems and weaknesses can. (Know)

- Desire to be constantly tapped into God's power. (Feel)
- Be challenged to discover their spiritual gifts; finding avenues to apply and develop them. (Respond)

III. EXPLORE

Spiritual Gifts and Ministries, Seventh-day Adventist Fundamental Beliefs, No. 17

God bestows upon all members of His church in every age spiritual gifts that each member is to employ in loving ministry for the common good of the church and of humanity. Given by the agency of the Holy Spirit, who apportions to each member as He wills, the gifts provide all abilities and ministries needed by the church to fulfill its divinely ordained functions. According to the Scriptures, these gifts include such ministries as faith, healing, prophecy, proclamation, teaching, administration, reconciliation, compassion, and self-sacrificing service and charity for the help and encouragement of people. Some members are called of God and endowed by the Spirit for functions recognized by the church in pastoral, evangelistic, and teaching ministries particularly needed to equip the members for service, to build up the church to spiritual maturity, and to foster unity of the faith and knowledge of God. When members employ these spiritual gifts as faithful stewards of God's varied grace, the church is protected from the destructive influence of false doctrine, grows with a growth that is from God, and is built up in faith and love (Acts 6:1-7; Rom. 12:4-8; 1 Cor.

12:7-11, 27, 28; Eph. 4:8, 11-16; 1 Tim. 3:1-13; 1 Peter 4:10, 11).

TEACHING

I. GETTING STARTED

Activity

Refer the students to the What Do You Think? section of their lesson. After they have completed it, discuss their responses.

Beforehand, prepare cards or decorative notepapers. Instruct students to write notes of encouragement to someone they know who is going through a difficult time. Alternatively, if any of your students are currently feeling discouraged or overwhelmed, encourage them to write notes of encouragement to themselves.

If they absolutely cannot think of anyone to write a note to, have a list of sick or shut-in members available.

If it's possible, have your students share what they have written with the class. Plan to make time at the end of the session to pray for the people mentioned here.

Illustration

Share this illustration in your own words:

For this illustration, prepare the following items: flashlight, batteries for flashlight, table lamp.

Bring out a flashlight that has no batteries in it. How useful is it? What does it need?

(Give the students time to share their answers with the class.)

Put the batteries in. Now it works. But what will happen if you leave it on for a few days or months?

(Give the students time to share their answers with the class.)

They run out of power. This is a metaphor for our relationship with God. We cannot do what we were made to do until He gives us power to do it. We can last for a little while, until our "batteries" run out.

(Now take out a lamp and plug it in.) Compared to a flashlight, how long can the lamp keep shining? We need God's constant power in our lives if we are truly going to make an impact for Him in the lives of the people around us. We need to tap into that power source—constantly and consistently.

II. TEACHING THE STORY

Bridge to the Story

Share the following in your own words:

When we chase after God with all of our hearts, when we make every effort to get to know Him better, He reveals to us our purpose for existing. He tells us the plans He has for us. He gives us courage to face whatever problems may come our way. In order to make this happen, we need to tap into His ultimate power source. Then we can begin not only to see the purpose in everything, but to become purposeful ourselves!

Out of the Story for Teachers

After you read the Into the Story section with your students, use the following in your own words to process it with them.

- Circle the main characters in this story.
- What event is occurring here?
- Share any aspects of the story that are new to you.
- Peter and the apostles did not back down even though the circumstances were so intimidating. What can we learn from their actions?
- God sent an angel to open the jail doors for the apostles. What does that reveal about God?
- What lesson from this story will you apply to your life?
- Use the following as other teachable passages that relate to today's story: Read Acts 6:1-7. The apostles could withstand beatings. They dared to rebuke people in positions of authority. Yet they needed to outsource the job of administrative duties in the church to seven others. What does this say about abilities and talents?
- Read Ephesians 2:10. God planned for us to do good things. He has a purpose for us. Peter said: "God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another" (1 Peter 4:10, NLT). What talents and abilities do you have? (Sometimes students will refer to performance-based abilities, such as singing, drawing, or playing a musical instrument as talents. This is a good opportunity to broaden their understanding that our talents and abilities can also include listening, problem solving, or compassion.)

Tips for Top-Notch Teaching

Quitting Time

Sometimes in class students may act up, appear tired, or seem uninterested in the lesson. They may even request for the class to end early. However, if you do give in to temptation and dismiss the class prematurely, you would have indirectly sent a message to the students who put in extra effort to be in class that their sacrifices are not valued or respected and that the time together studying God's Word is unimportant. It also sets a precedent that would make it harder for you to overcome later.

RABBI 101

power and help—the Holy Spirit. We should turn to the Holy Spirit to give us strength, courage, and insight to accomplish God's work for us.

Ellen White offers this insight on the power of the Holy Spirit: "What was the strength of those who in the past have suffered persecution for Christ's sake? It was union with God, union with the Holy Spirit, union with Christ. Reproach and persecution have separated many from earthly friends, but never from the love of Christ" (The Acts of the Apostles, p. 85). What can you do today to better experience this life-changing and life-empowering infusion of the Holy Spirit?

2. The Power of Purpose. The apostles declared that they "must obey God," echoing their earlier rhetorical question in Acts 4:19. Their statement emphasizes their conviction to fulfill God plans and purposes no matter the cost. Previously, Jesus had commanded them (Acts 1:8) and now, the angel of the Lord was directing them (Acts 5:20). Naturally, the apostles knew their purpose.

Although Romans 12:18 encourages us to live at peace with everyone and Jesus laid down the principle of obeying both Caesar and God (Matthew 22:21), yet when a choice is to be made, we can pledge allegiance to only one master. How many times have we chosen the approval of men over God's approval? Is it because we are unclear as to what God wants from us and has planned for us? How can we attain clarity on this? If we are sure but are avoiding His directives because they do not align with our desires, what can be done to recalibrate our moral compass?

Sharing Context and Background

Use the following information to shed more light on specific aspects of the story for your students. Share it in your own words.

1. The Power to Change. Despite his initial character flaws and shameful denial of his association with Christ (Mark 14:66-72), after Christ's resurrection Peter was a changed man. He preached fearlessly and performed many miracles. His actions clearly pointed to the life-changing power of the Holy Spirit—through which there is no task insurmountable. The Holy Spirit is still available to empower believers today. God promised (John 16:1-16) the believers a source of

Teaching From the Lesson

Refer your students to the other sections of their lesson.

- Key Text

Invite students to share the Key Text with the class if they have committed it to memory.

- Flashlight

Read the Flashlight statement, pointing out that most of the time it is from the commentary on this week's story found in the book The Acts of the Apostles. Ask what relationship they see between the statement and what they have just discussed from Out of the Story.

- Punch Lines

Point out to your students the verses listed in their lesson that relate to this week's story. Have them share the verse that spoke most directly to them and allow them to explain why they chose it.

- Further Insight

Ask them how the quote in Further Insight conveys the point of the story in this lesson.

III. CLOSING

Activity

Close with an activity and debrief it in your own words.

- Design a simple blank business card that says I AM MADE FOR GOD'S PURPOSE and a place for students to sign their name.
- Hand them out and challenge your students to sign their cards. Next, have them pick a Bible verse from the Punch Lines section of their lesson and write it down on the back of the card.
- Encourage your students to put this card in their wallets or purses and whenever they are waiting in line, or for a bus, to take out this card and memorize the text.

During the week pray for your students, that as they read and memorize the text, God will show them opportunities to fulfill His purposes. Discuss the results the following week in Sabbath School.

Summary

Share the message of the following quote in your own words:

“Sometimes the process of being shaped by God can be painful and difficult, but if we can look up from the problems of the moment, in the distance we should glimpse the joy of knowing that wonderful things happen when we live our lives according to God’s purpose” (Great Talk Outlines for Youth Ministry, p. 281).

Remind the students about the reading plan that will take them through the inspired commentary of the Bible, the Conflict of the Ages Series. The reading that goes with this lesson is The Acts of the Apostles (or Unlikely Leaders), chapters 8, 9.
