

PROJECT

Here's a PROJ-ect or task for you. Many young people make their plans for their lifetime work based on their interests, talents, and the amount of money they expect to make. While God created us to worship Him and serve others, this includes "work" on pretty much a daily basis.

For those who wonder, "What shall I do for work? There are so many options!" Instead of "doing whatever you want to do" or "making lots of money," make your first criteria: I work for God by serving others in whatever "work" I do. The second criteria is the profession such as teacher, designer, chef, singer, TikTok sensation, health care provider, Amazon driver, etc.

Now it's time to pro-JECT into the future. What do you imagine your work for God will be:
