

DARK AGES

Describe a time in which you had to be a witness.

Read Revelation 11:1-13.

1. Who do the two witnesses represent?
 - a. The reformers.
 - b. The believers in the medieval ages.
 - c. Nowadays believers.
 - d. The early church.
 - e. The disciples.
 - f. Two people in heaven.
 - g. The papacy.
 - h. Other.

2. Who does the beast represent?
 - a. The persecutors of the church.
 - b. Papal Rome.
 - c. The kings of Europe.
 - d. Satan.
 - e. America.
 - f. A random demon.
 - g. An actual beast.
 - h. Other.

3. Why do the witnesses have certain powers?
 - a. To kill the beasts that attack them.
 - b. To protect themselves.
 - c. They are shrouded in God's protection.
 - d. To further their mission.
 - e. God preserved their lives when He saw the need.
 - f. To help others really hear their message.
 - g. To wreak havoc and damage on the earth.
 - h. Other.

4. T or F: The beast wins the ultimate battle.
 - a. T. He kills the witnesses.
 - b. F. He dies.
 - c. T. He kills the witnesses forever.
 - d. F. He is defeated in a big battle.
 - e. T. Most people are on the beast's side and rejoice at the death of the witnesses.
 - f. F. He kills the witnesses, but they resurrect.
 - g. F. He is punished by God.
 - h. Other.

5. How many days pass between the death of the witnesses and their resurrection?
 - a. 3 days.
 - b. A week.
 - c. 1260 days.
 - d. From the Middle Ages to now.
 - e. Until 1844.
 - f. They're dead for eternity.
 - g. Until Jesus returns.
 - h. Other.

6. What happens to the enemies of the truth?
 - a. They get destroyed.
 - b. They burn in a fire.
 - c. 1/10th of them die.
 - d. They're destroyed in an earthquake.
 - e. They are full of fear.
 - f. They watch the witnesses ascend to heaven.
 - g. They win the ultimate battle.
 - h. Other.

7. What do you take away from the stories of the believers in the Middle Ages?

8. How can you be a witness amidst the constant attack from the "beast" today?