

“Living the Best Life!”

Can you share a personal story about when life was at its best for you?

Read Revelation 21:1-6.

1. After reading Revelation 21:1-6, how would you describe the scene?
 - A. Boring
 - B. Exciting
 - C. Worrisome
 - D. Unstable
 - E. Inviting
 - F. Spectacular
 - G. Awesome
 - H. Dark
 - I. Other

2. What is the meaning of John’s vision described in Revelation 21:1?
 - A. John was referring to a scrubbing of heaven.
 - B. John was glad that the atmosphere would change.
 - C. He was glad that the sky over Jerusalem would be purified.
 - D. He did not care about climate change.
 - E. John was sad to know that the sea would be gone.
 - F. John was excited to know that this world of sin would be no more.
 - G. John was seeing the time when Jesus makes all things new.
 - H. Other.

3. Why do you think the Holy City is compared to a bride Revelation 21:2?
 - A. John loved weddings.
 - B. John was remembering his own wife and her beauty.
 - C. John was trying to find words to explain the splendor of the city.
 - D. He was attending a wedding while writing, so it was easy.
 - E. He highlighted Jesus’ preparation for His children.
 - F. He was comparing the beauty of the city to a beautiful bride.
 - G. John was just happy to know that Jesus wins in the end.
 - H. Other.

4. What is John explaining in Revelation 21:3?
 - A. John is sharing about God's triumph over wickedness.
 - B. He is excited about God proclaiming who His real people are.
 - C. No more Romans to imprison and oppress God's people.
 - D. There is no physical separation between God and His people.
 - E. God is only interested in a select few among all people.
 - F. God is too loud; people will be fearful of Him.
 - G. God is returning from a long journey and reunites with His people.
 - H. Other.

5. What feelings come over you as you read Revelation 21:4?
 - A. Anxiousness.
 - B. Joy and delight.
 - C. Victory.
 - D. "Yay! No more death!"
 - E. Empowerment.
 - F. Excitement.
 - G. "I want to dance for joy!"
 - H. "Not sure, what about joyful tears?"
 - I. Other.

6. Why can we believe what John is seeing in this vision? (Revelation 21:5-6.)
 - A. Jesus is the One giving the vision to John, and we can trust Him.
 - B. We can trust John because he is a good person.
 - C. Jesus signs the vision by saying, "These words are true and faithful."
 - D. There is nothing we can do to know if John is right.
 - E. He saw Jesus work miracles before so we can believe him.
 - F. John is hearing Jesus speak to him directly and clearly.
 - G. Jesus' words to John offer everything true and right.
 - H. Other.

7. What preparations are you making now to be with Jesus forever?

8. Are your personal daily experiences and activities aligned with Jesus?