

Against the Odds

What is a place you've always dreamed of exploring? Why?

Read Numbers 13:1-33.

Read Numbers 14:1-45.

1. What did the spies see in the land of Canaan?
  - A. Yummy fruit and lots of resources.
  - B. Strong and scary people.
  - C. Dry and not-so-great land.
  - D. Giant-sized people who were tough to beat.
  - E. Cities that were like super forts, hard to break into.
  - F. Plenty of water and good soil for farming.
  - G. Beautiful nature and amazing views.
  - H. Cool animals you don't see every day.
  - I. Other

2. Why do you think some of the spies got scared and thought they couldn't take over Canaan?
  - A. Forgot to trust that God would help them like He promised.
  - B. Thought they were too weak compared to the Canaanites.
  - C. Listened to what most people thought, even if it wasn't right.
  - D. Had faced tough battles before and didn't want more trouble.
  - E. Were afraid to leave behind their comfortable life in the wilderness.
  - F. Didn't believe in themselves and thought they couldn't do it.
  - G. Felt overwhelmed by all the challenges they saw.
  - H. Worried about leaving their current life behind.
  - I. Other

3. How did Joshua and Caleb see the situation differently?
  - A. Believed that with God's help, they could conquer anything.
  - B. Thought the people in Canaan were easy to beat.
  - C. Wanted to give up and go back to where they came from.
  - D. Trusted their own military skills and plans to win in Canaan.
  - E. Had seen God do amazing things and knew He would keep His promises.
  - F. Relied on their own cleverness and strategies to succeed.
  - G. Felt scared too, but trusted God anyway.
  - H. Asked their leader, Moses, and his brother, Aaron, for advice.
  - I. Other

