

I Just Want to Celebrate!

When are you most likely to party?

Read Esther 9:1 through 10:3.

1. Why do you obey the laws of the land?
  - A. I agree with (all of) them.
  - B. I'm a Christian.
  - C. Most of them aren't really enforced.
  - D. God wants me to obey Him and the laws of the land.
  - E. I obey only those that make sense to me.
  - F. So I don't get into trouble.
  - G. So I can go to heaven.
  - H. Other.

2. Why did the Jews kill all of Haman's sons?
  - A. They had unfinished business with the family.
  - B. They didn't want to mess up like Saul had (1 Samuel 15:1-3, 7-9).
  - C. In those days, families were treated as a unit.
  - D. Whenever someone came into power, they eliminated all opposition.
  - E. They wanted to honor the father by treating his sons the same way.
  - F. It seemed like the right thing to do.
  - G. Take no prisoners (don't let them come back and get you later).
  - H. Other.

3. How was Esther's request to the king different from previous ones?
  - A. It wasn't. It was pretty much the same.
  - B. It didn't cost the king any money.
  - C. Esther went all out for revenge.
  - D. They didn't have to send out messengers to 127 provinces.
  - E. It went from supper to Haman to all of the Jews' enemies.
  - F. The king initiated contact with Esther.
  - G. She asked the king to cook for her.
  - H. Other.
